SERMON 1.

CHRIST, THE KING OF ANGELS.

ASCENSION DAY.

1 S. PET. iii. 22.

“Who is gone into Heaven, and is on the right hand of God; Angels and Authorities and Powers being made subject unto Him.”

It is most certain that, when we have done our best, we cannot lift up our minds and hearts fully to understand the unspeakable glory which the Son of God, as He is also Son of Man, obtained as on this day: when He, who a little more than forty days before had been “^aa worm and no man, a very scorn of men and the outcast of the people,” was set at His Father’s Right Hand “^bin the heavenly places, far above all principality and power, and might, and dominion, and every name that is named, not only in this world, but in that also which is to come:” and had all things put under His feet, and was given to be head over all things. We cannot, I say, realize this in our thoughts, even as we cannot know or imagine the place, where the visible though spiritual Body of our Blessed Lord now is; or how, or which way, He was received up through the air when He hid
